Winter wellies and Sexy Fish in this week's weekend guide

BY HARRIET GREEN 23 OCTOBER 2015

Considered one of the most imaginative artistic talents of his generation, David Jones (1895 - 1974) created ground-breaking work in the visual arts and in literature. This Saturday an exhibition, David Jones: Vision and Memory, opens at the Pallant House Gallery in Chichester. Showcasing some 80 works spanning the whole of Jones's life it includes sketches made on the western front, watercolours of trees and flowers, book illustrations, and poetry. Image The Garden Enclosed, 1924
